The Washington Times

ARNAUD de BORCHGRAVE
Editor-in-Chief

March 28, 1985

Mr. Herbert Meyer
Vice Chairman
National Intelligence Council
Room 7E47
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Meyer:

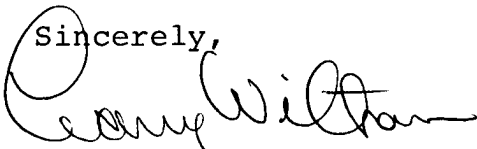

This letter confirms your visit to The Washington Times for the editorial luncheon which will be held on April 3, 1985 at 12:30 to 2:00 p.m.

Arnaud hosts these luncheons and senior editors and reporters of The Times attend. Since its inception nearly three years ago, The Times has held editorial luncheons as a main news forum, and has hosted a wide range of newsmakers. The group size is about 14. As guest speaker, you are invited to make opening remarks which are followed by a question and answer period. Although discussion sessions are usually on-the-record, your request to have an off-the-record briefing will be strictly honored.

Just before the luncheon, I would like to invite you on a brief tour of the news room operation. In addition, Arnaud would like you to have a drink with him prior to the luncheon. Would you be able to arrive at 12:15? The Times is located at 3600 New York Avenue, NE.

If I can be of any help before your coming, don't hesitate to call me at 636-3200.

Sincerely,

Larry A. Witham
Executive Assistant to the Editor-in-Chief
